In the wake of the recent natural disasters that have devastated countless communities, we find ourselves in an urgent crisis. Hurricanes Helene and Milton caused significant devastation and disrupted the ability to collect life-saving blood products throughout the Southeast in the days after landfall. As members of the Dobson Ranch community, we have the power to lend a helping hand.

The Red Cross will be at the La Casita Recreation Center in Dobson Ranch on Monday, October 14, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Every donor counts. Every pint counts. Every life matters.
